

For Immediate Release

---

Contact: Esther Estrada Blanco
Management Analyst
Public Works Department
Phone: 707-428-7528
Fax: 707-428-7607
Email: eblanco@fairfield.ca.gov

Free paper shredding and recycling Last Saturday of each month March through October

Fairfield, California (Friday, March 11, 2016)—Back by popular demand, free confidential paper shredding, e-waste, and used clothing drop off is available on March 26 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the parking lot at the corner of Jefferson and Empire streets in downtown Fairfield. The event is scheduled monthly, on the last Saturday of the month, from March through October 2016.

In 2015, Gone for Good shredded and recycled 53,900 pounds of confidential papers, and recycled 21,167 pounds of electronic waste. In addition, the 1,950 pounds of used clothing was repurposed through United Cerebral Palsy of North Bay's thrift stores

Protect yourself from identity theft. Shred important documents you no longer need. This event is open to all residents and small businesses from nearby cities. You may have up to 10 boxes shredded per person, at no charge. A Certificate of Destruction will be mailed to your home or office, upon requested.

Gone for Good, the document shredding company adheres to the highest levels of security in the industry. Their operational policies and procedures ensure a consistent, closed chain-of-custody.

Fairfield-based Gone for Good is a branch of the United Cerebral Palsy of North Bay and is a nonprofit corporation. They can provide complete media and document destruction and recycling services for your home or office. For more information, call Bruce Mullenix at (707) 430-4380 or visit their website at www.goneforgooducpnb.com

This free, monthly paper shredding, e-waste, and used clothing drop off service is provided through a partnership between the City of Fairfield, Fairfield Main Street Association, Solano County, and UCP of the North Bay.

###